Action Points:

ITEM	WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?
1. Seedy Saturday.	 Helen to organise tables. Exhibitors to be confirmed by Maggie. Left over stock/ books will go to Oxfam. Sarah Hills to run the book swap. All to provide seedlings. Wendy & Adam to man the seed table. Helen to organise the display mats. Maggie to obtain display from Paul and get some leaflets organised. Beryl to do tea & coffee, Maggie & Alison to make cake, Helen & Alison to make soup. Payment for the table is on a donation basis unless it is a commercial organisation.
2. AGM	 Liz to minute the AGM. It will be a recap on the year's activities. Two things to consider, firstly communications such as the newsletter pilot. What to include in it is for discussion, such as issues being campaigned against and other issues. The criteria for inclusion could be that the organisation appear at a soapbox meeting. AGM to also consider what is responded to by the Committee. The constitution will need to be updated. Alan is to look at a new form of money. Several events were mentioned which will be added to the forthcoming newsletter. There should be time at each meeting for people to feedback on events that they have been to. Charging for films is also to be discussed.
3Community Allotment	 Charging for films is also to be discussed. Alison to speak to Alison C re the replanting of the apple tree. Adam to obtain glazing quotes. Allotment to be registered with HACVS. Allotment to be publicised at Seedy Saturday.

	 18/4 Working Party to be publicised in WSCT by Maggie with the focus on recruiting volunteers.
